

THE CHILDREN'S BOOK COUNCIL OF AUSTRALIA

BOOK OF THE YEAR AWARDS 1946 –

From 1946 to 1958 the Book of the Year Awards were judged and presented by the Children's Book Council of New South Wales. In 1959 when the Children's Book Councils in the various States drew up the Constitution for the CBC of Australia, the judging of this Annual Award became a Federal matter. From 1960 both the Book of the Year and the Picture Book of the Year were judged by the same panel.

BOOK OF THE YEAR: YOUNGER READERS

In 1982 the judges were instructed to award a medal for a category of junior readers if there was a book entered which in their opinion deserved recognition. In 1983 a medal was to be presented to the author of the Junior Book of the Year and a further medal to the illustrator if, in the opinion of the judges the illustrations add significantly to the text. The title of the Award was known as the Junior Book of the Year Award until 1987.
