Warami

I am delighted to be chosen as the CBCA artist.

It is such a privilege to be able to tell my story through this platform.

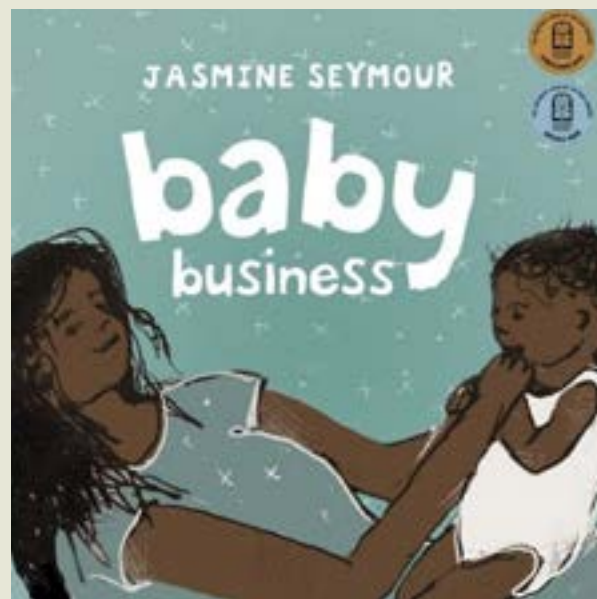

My story is about connecting to Country and learning from the sky, waterways and lands of my people the Dharug people.

Jasmine Seymour

Jasmine Seymour was the winner of the CBCA 2020 New Illustrator Award.

Jasmine's picture book Baby Business tells the story of the baby smoking ceremony that welcomes a new baby to country.

A wonderful story to share with young children.

Dreaming with eyes open...

Welcome to 2022. We believe this year will be full of possibilities— we thank you for your support through your purchase of our merchandise.

With your support we're able to continue our important work of connecting young Australians to great stories— written for them by our community of amazing creatives.

Our merchandise continues to champion the work of our awarded artists, promotes our CBCA Book of the Year Awards, and provides quality products all ready for you to celebrate CBCA Book Week.

This year we thank you for moving with us to a one-stop-shop. By supporting this move you enable us to work more efficiently and as a small not-for-profit, this means we can deliver more purposeful activities to our community.

ARTWORK BY JASMINE SEYMOUR | © THE CHILDREN'S BOOK COUNCIL AUSTRALIA

Our 2022 artwork features a wonderful group of animals celebrating our connection to country. Their presence is continual, past, present and future as part of our First Australians' dreaming. In Jasmine's Dharug language, we welcome buru —the kangaroo, burudyara—the butterfly, girrawi—the sulphur-crested cockatoo, and garad—the yellow-tailed black cockatoo.

INTRODUCING OUR SPECIAL NEW PARTNER AND THEIR

artisan range

Merchandising Libraries is internationally recognised as the market leader in premium signage and display tools, tailoring products to the practical needs of libraries.

CBCA has partnered with Merchandising Libraries to create a collection of sophisticated installation art. Your purchase directly supports our CBCA work. Made in Australia, these stunning birds can be suspended from the ceiling, mounted on walls or applied to windows.

You might create a flock of hanging birds over a story time-space, decorate windows or perhaps combine fabrication methods to create a layered effect. The possibilities are limitless!

Order through the CBCA eStore and we will send your orders on directly to Merchandising Libraries for fabrication and shipping
