The Picture Book of the Year Award

CLASS B

Exceptional contribution to Australian children's literature and production, and artistry and innovation in the presentation of text and images.

The Picture Book of the Year Award is the highest honor for Australian children's books, recognizing excellence in storytelling, illustration, design, and production. It is awarded to a book that demonstrates a unique and innovative approach to the medium of children's literature, engaging both young and adult readers alike.

For more information on the winners, visit the website of the Australian Society of Authors (ASA) or the Australian Children's Book Trade (ACBT) for annual updates on the selections.

The final award ceremony is held each year at a prestigious venue, celebrating the achievements of the selected authors and illustrators.

To learn more about previous winners and the criteria for nomination, please consult the awards section of the Australian Children's Book Festival website or relevant literature resources.

For any questions or inquiries, please contact the Australian Children's Book Council (ACBC) directly.
