

PRESENTING ONLINE 101 TO KIDS

This year Victorians will be celebrating CBCA Book Week Covid-style, with virtual author talks and online book dress up days

Join us to learn the secret to making children's programming work online, from three seasoned online presenters

Wednesday 7 October 4-5pm

Free for CBCA members, non-members $10

Register by email: vic@cbca.org.au

The speakers

Emma White is the Children and Youth Coordinator at Hobsons Bay Libraries and the current Convenor of the Public Libraries Victoria, Children's and Youth Services Special Interest Group. Emma has worked in public libraries for over 10 years, and is a passionate advocate for children and young people in library spaces.

Adrian Beck is the co-author of the best-selling kids' series Kick it to Nick, with AFL Hall of Fame inductee Shane Crawford. Part-time TV producer / part-time writer, Adrian uses both skill sets to entertain with lively, humorous and interactive sessions on writing, working in television and footy.

Julianne Negri has been a musician, eco-crafter, television host, screenwriter and filmmaker. Through it all, writing has been her one constant and this year she published her first novel, The Secret Library of Hummingbird House. Julianne works in libraries on programs for children and teens and presents storytimes. She has five children, is a voracious reader and lives in Melbourne.
